Dir Sir,

During the conference of Directors of ICAR institutes, a presentation, was made on the initiative taken to implement the on-line transfer module for scientific personnel of ICAR. In this context, the detailed guidelines to regulate the transfer policy for scientific personnel have also been issued vide circular no 38(2)/2011-Per.IV dated 20th February' 2017.

It is informed that the on-line transfer module is likely to be operated shortly for which detailed time schedule for operating each phases will be announced accordingly. After completion of the exercise of dealing with the cases of distorted postings, the vacancy position is being updated on the PMIS date base for availing of transfer in on-line application mode by the Scientist concerned.

Therefore, your good self is requested to apprise the scientists accordingly, and it may be emphasized that the guidelines stated in the ICAR letter stated above should be adhered to avail the on-line system, and applications duly completed in all respect in accordance with the guidelines, and subject to validity of the documents enclosed with the on-line application, will only be communicated for scrutiny and for appropriate decision of the competent authority.
