

Training programme on “Cyber Security” for ICAR Technical Personnel

A training programme on “Cyber Security” for ICAR Technical Personnel was organized at ICAR-IASRI, New Delhi during September 28 to October 05, 2016 under the aegis of Human Resources Management Unit of ICAR. The main aim of the training was to expose the trainees with the broad overview of the cyber security and latest cyber security practices. The topics included cyber Security concepts, fundamental security design principles, threats and attacks; security functional requirements, unified threat management system, cryptographic tools and algorithms, user authentication digital signatures, end Point security, malicious software, database security, cyber law, ethical aspects of security, ssecurity issues in Data Centre environment, ISO security standards, IPv6, and current scenarios.

Dr. U.C. Sud, Director, ICAR-IASRI welcomed all the participants and the chief guest. Dr. A.K. Vyas, ADG (HRM), Chief Guest of Valedictory function appreciated the efforts made by ICAR-IASRI to conduct training programme on “Cyber Security”. He said that these days we face to different kind of threats and attacks that comes in many forms and shapes. These threats target our network, users, systems and sensitive information. So we need to protect our information, database etc. in cyber world.

Dr. A.K. Choubey, Head Division of Computer Applications and Dr Seema Jaggi, HRD Nodal Officer, ICAR-IASRI, Coordinator of the training Dr. Mukesh Kumar, Dr Sudeep Marwaha and faculty were present in the valedictory function. A total of 23 participants were attended this training from 12 states representing from different ICAR institutes.

